The following excerpts are from the Emory University Intellectual Property Policy (adopted March 15, 2011)

IV. Release or Assignment of Certain Intellectual Property

At the time of disclosure of Intellectual Property to OTT, or at any time thereafter, Emory Personnel may petition Emory to release or assign ownership of the Intellectual Property. The determination of such petition will be made by the Vice President for Research Administration, in consultation with the Emory Personnel's Supervisors, and OTT. No release or assignment of Intellectual Property will be granted where that release or assignment is inconsistent with rights granted to a third party. No release is effective until signed by Emory's Vice President for Research Administration. Petitions will be processed as soon as is reasonably possible, which shall mean not more than 120 days from the completion of the submission. Under all circumstances, Emory will retain a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual license to use any released or assigned Intellectual Property for research, clinical service, and educational purposes.

Appendix A: definition of "Supervisor"

Supervisor shall mean the Dean, Director, Department Head, Vice President and/ or other individual having direct supervisory authority or responsibility over an Emory Personnel. In the School of Medicine, where approval is required by a Supervisor, it shall include the requirement of approval of the Chair and the Dean.
